

Corinne Olson has taught elementary school for 32 years. She has taught band and music for several years in Sturgis School Division, Long Lake School Division, Saskatoon and Blood Reserve in Alberta. Corinne taught English in Czechoslovakia and then started teaching Band and music in Prince Albert. Corinne switched to kindergarten for the last nine years. Corinne spent ten years on the Provincial Executive of Saskatchewan Music Educators. Corinne served as secretary, vice president and president, publicity, as a local ECEC liaison of the Provincial ECEC for six years. Corinne also served as president on the local Prince Albert ECEC for 5 years.

I am so proud to present this award to Corinne, as she is not only an esteemed colleague from my school division in Prince Albert, but I am honoured to call her my friend.

Congratulations Corinne on becoming a Life Member of the Saskatchewan Early Childhood Education Council.
