

The Saskatchewan Early Childhood Education Council is pleased to announce:

Millicent Marshall Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship has been made possible through a trust bequeathed to the ECEC by the late Millicent Marshall, an ECEC Life Member. Millicent Marshall was a respected professor of Early Childhood at the U of S. She was instrumental in promoting early childhood education in our province. Many ECEC members were students or colleagues of hers and remember her fondly. We are honored to offer this scholarship in her name.

Purpose:

- To further an understanding of early childhood education.
- To upgrade or to complete a degree in Early Childhood Education.

Criteria:

- Must be a current member of ECEC (for one year) residing in Saskatchewan.
- Must be taking classes relevant to Early Childhood Education.
- Must include a separate, brief statement expressing early childhood philosophy, list of completed courses, and interest.
- Preference will be given to first time recipients who are interning or are in at least their 3rd year in a College of Education.
- Proof of enrollment and biographical information for journal publication must be received before monies are distributed.

The scholarship amount will be decided based upon course costs, up to $1000.00 per year.
